8. COMPLETE THE PROTECTION TEST.

PARIS

Eva was missing.... She had been kidnapped from under my own eyes!

It happened yesterday while I was testing my new camera that Eva had bought back from her latest trip to Japan. She was moving sensually and erotically when all of a sudden two men rushed through the balcony window of my flat and into the room.

One of the men, tattooed in the way of a "Samurai", knocked me out while the other one, a fat "Sumo" fighter, put Eva on his shoulders and the two of them stepped out onto the balcony from where they came. I came round just in time to see them disappearing down the street in a black limousine.

I realised I had just met the "Honourable Outlaws - the Yakuza", the Japanese Mafia, one of the most violent organisations in the world.

Why? Eva had told me about her speech she had given at the recent Astrophysical Congress - the male dominated audience had been entranced by her beauty. She had even heard a rumour that a powerful Japanese researcher wanted her to assist him as his 'de-luxe Geisha' - this had really hurt her professional pride. I shuddered to think that his wish may have come true.

Only one thing for it - go to Tokyo.

Upon my arrival at Narita Airport my attention was drawn to a Micro Computer shop. The shop had the latest inventions in the computing industry available but there was one item that caught my eye - the HYPERMED. It was the most modern piece of equipment as far as multi-media interactivity was concerned.

My travel agent had booked me into a hotel in the Ginza district. My spacious room was rather soberly-furnished; a cypress-wood hanging wardrobe, a few dark opal bottles and a folding screen designed with a printing which at first appeared erotic but actually served to educate young girls in the art of love so as to be able to please their future husbands. I stretched out on the futon and played with the Hypermed - the various key-accessible functions were setting menus in a communication frame and images were displaying on a videographic screen.

I looked at the GAMES heading; I chose a 'shoot 'em up' in which my space craft flew around a maze being pursued by a horde of fierce attackers. Other games were available but I did not have the time to play.

I decided to look at the PREDICTEL service and duly selected my Chinese astrological sign -the monkey. I was pleased to discover that I had a gift for success - that looked promising.

I was also able to get a reading by a certain Sensei ISUZU who told me about my future. "Your heart is full of love yet you are doing something senseless. I anticipate little luck since the way to success is long and experiences are really painful; however you do seem to be determined. You deserve some help. Your path will cross with someone who has similar aims - you are both pursuing the same enemy. "The Elegant Locust" never allows interviews but I see in the Kami Goddess that you can benefit one another. I will persuade him to meet with you."

Then I was summoned by my Hypermed, a taxi was ready to take me to the wealthy district of Yamanote.

Mr.O (also known as The Elegant Locust) appeared, I was surprised by his youthful looks and relaxed air. "The Sensei ISUZU has told me great things about you, do not worry his learnings are not connected with the occult he just happens to be very well informed. We even know who is holding your Eva....."

"I am what we call a Yakusa chief and my business interests are in the world of business and politics. I have many enemies, especially Napadami whose speciality is the sex industry. He is a famous scientist who dedicates his life to the creation of gynoids, which are robotized copies of our wives. We can meet them at SHATO, in Napadmi's City of Pleasure, on an island not far from Honshu. You may wonder why I am so vengeful - I once adored a geisha called Ifumi who was taken by the Lustful Dragon and because of her exceptional beauty was put to work in his machines. She died after repeated orgasms. This is what will happen to Eva! If you are able to destroy this evil person I would be forever in your debt, I think that maybe your naivety will win through.

He stood up to notify me that our interview was ending. "We will never meet again. I will create a mail-box on your Hypermed, so that I will be able to dispatch messages to you. Goodbye".

Back in my room I was thinking about Mr.O's words. Thus, few people had seen Napadami. His men were recognisable by their large third finger on the right hand, "The Finger of Felicity", and his spy-women by a dragon design tattooed on their right buttock.

By reading the SEXYTEL pages, I looked up Napadami's establishments which according to the advertisements differed from the competitor's ones due to their technological supremacy.

As per Mr.O's advice, I decided to hold a 'holo-sensations' test at Senso-show in the Jade Temple. There was also the 'White Willow' and the 'Baths of Desire'. Unfortunately the entrance to 'Gaijin' was not permitted unless people gave the establishment Geisha balls - these are made from black pearls and are particularly rare in Japan.

I attended the holo-sensation and in the darkness I could make out a young woman behind the plate glass...when the lights came on I recognised Eva. She could not see me as the glass was a mirror on her side. At this point I realised how cunning the Lustful Dragon actually was. He had not only spotted me but was also teasing me by displaying Eva in a situation where I could not reach her. They would probably not let me go alive but I was ready to sell my life dearly.

After the holo-sensation I was challenged to the Erotic Fight. Luckily I had the chance to have some practice on my Hypermed and therefore won the required 2 games. Napadmi's men played fair, they left the table without saying a word.

Back at my hotel I found a message from Mr.O."I propose you meet with Kine. You will find her at the Baths of Desire where she is known as "Honey Wind". She spent her last week-end at the Shato and probably knows a lot of the goings-on there".

Those famous Baths of Desire, I should find a way to enter them. How could I get hold of the geisha balls?

Concerning that I found a new message from Mr.O; "I've got a lead for you to find the black pearls. I suggest you go and see Oko, she is a pearl fisherman and she may be able to help".

Oko flashed me a smile and said "I am keen to help you as I agree with Mr.O that NAPADAMI is an abominable person but I am unable to help you with the black pearls as I do not possess any. However I do have a solution. We can visit Li-Fou's private marine collection, this unscrupulous collector has a unique shellfish which has been strangely blended with coral which I once collected. I would like to re-take it from him, that's fair isn't it? Unfortunately the project is difficult, there is no sophisticated alarm system but the treasure is protected by some dangerous sea fauna. I will dive and you will protect me, whilst down there I will also casually collect two black pearls. Do you want to help?

How could I refuse, I knew that Oko dived in the nude !!

More to the point Oko knew how to make the geisha balls. The black pearls were moving enticingly in their shells - they represented my 'ticket' for Honey Wind's massages.....

"You must enter the Shato. It is quite unpenetrable but I know there is a secret submarine entry. Incidentally do you know why Mr.o is called 'The Elegant Locust'?"

I muttered and implied that I did not.

"There is a rumour that prior to making love he covers his hands with Hinoki Oil. The Hinoki is a sacred-tree used for the Shinto sanctuaries and is also a favourite with the locusts that actually sleep in the tree. Coating hands with this oil enables one to capture them easily, they are quite paralysed by the smell"

At this point I decided to leave this delicious creature alone and take a good rest to consider the situation I now found myself in.

I pretended to find a hostess in the catalogue I was offered. I was in one of Napadami's haunts and did not want to come face-to-face with a tattooed dragon on a Mata Hari's buttock.

Kine liked to be stripped - for her it combined business with pleasure since she gave massages with her whole body. "Mr.O tells me you wish to enter the Shato, it is safely kept but I can show you the submarine entrance, some propelled machines are permanently parked there. You will access by 3 underground traps that are guarded by aggressive virobots but be careful not to allow yourself to get infected. You will find some shields on your way and here is an 'extaser' to disconnect their aggressivity circuit. They will die for love.....Good luck."

By now the excitement was becoming unbearable, my blood was pulsating all through my body and I had reached the point of no return. There was no turning back, however I had to postpone the final explosion. The ecstasy was the prize.....

Eva was waiting for me.

GAME CONTROLS

Your aim is to rescue Eva from the Lustful Dragon's hands without dying during the different tests assigned to you. The adventure starts when you are in your hotel room.

A multi functional Hypermed is at your disposal:

F1: The scroll function enables you to choose either to come back to your hotel or to go ahead to the following scene.

F2: The use key enables you to use objects available in your inventory.

F3: SEXYTEL consultation provides you access to an advertising directory as well as the training mode of the three most difficult tests.

F4: PREDICTEL consultation offers you a choice between a Chinese astrology service and a 'Live Second Sight' service.

F5: This is your personal message bank.

OFF: includes the gameplay, back up, loading, re-initialisation and exit functions.

INTERACTION OF THE DIFFERENT SCENES

Some pages need to be searched using the cursor. A description of certain items will be given when the cursor lands on it. To catch an object, just click on it.

1) The Jade Temple's Holo Sensations.

The aim is to discover the sequence of keys which, once typed in order, get the young woman behind the glass to execute the relevant caresses. You must enter a combination by clicking on the numbered keys, if any of the numbers chosen appear in the final solution a blue light will appear in the control panel on the left-hand side. Once all five numbers have been discovered they then have to be put in the correct order. If a number is selected in the correct position a caress will be executed immediately. Three well positioned caresses.....and you've got it.

2) *The Erotic Fight.

A card playing game. There are 24 cards; 4 Actors > 4 Samurai > 4 Empresses > 4 Sumotori > 4 Geisha. Each player is dealt five cards and a trump is then chosen. The players take it in turns until there are no cards left.

Each trick is worth one point and to be the overall winner you must win 2 games. There are two important things to note; firstly you can flip through your cards before play commences and you are also able to chose trumps rather than let the computer chose automatically.

3) *The Pearl Searching.

The aim is to get the swimmer to collect white and black pearls from the depths of the pool before her life counter is exhausted. You must neutralise the agressors before they wound her but she does have her own intelligence and tries to avoid contact wherever possible by changing levels. When her oxygen counter is empty she automatically comes up for air.

To shoot; press ENTER, the left mouse-key or the joystick fire key. To get her to collect a pearl you must anticipate her swimming down and then press the Space Bar.

4) The Withe Willow's Strip Tease

The aim is to strip the young woman of all her clothing. Each player choses one of the following attributes; Sabre, Fan and Statue and they then display them at the same time on screen. If the player choses a stronger attribute (SABRE > FAN > STATUE > SABRE) he gets the right to strip her of one item of clothing.

(This game is a version of Paper, Scissors and Stone).

5) *The Penetration

The aim while driving your space ship is to find the three underground exits guarded by the 'virobots' before the vehicle energy is exhausted. You can protect yourselves from these creatures by collecting shields. One must also beware of the lips - those that kiss give you renewed energy, those that bite damage the vehicle or ruin the shields.

* Those games that are prefixed with an asterisk are all accessible in a training mode from F3 on the Hypermed.

DETAILED START UP PROCEDURE

1. START UP

IBM PC AND COMPATIBLES

With your computer booted, insert the game disk in drive A at the A: Prompt , type GO then press the Return or Enter key. A screen will appear asking the best graphics card to use and the type of mouse you have. If you agree with the choice, type Y, if you wish to modify the choice type N.

If you type N, two further menus appear;

- one offers an alternative list of graphics cards, make your choice according to the card installed in your computer (Hercules, CGA, EGA, VGA...) by typing the letter corresponding to the card indicated on the screen.
- the other concerns the type of mouse (Microsoft or other). Reply by typing the corresponding letter. Attention; this software does not take into account any joysticks installed on the PC, use the keyboard only for input.

A final choice is offered regarding the sound. Attention: the choice 'sound with MDO Intersound' should only be made if you possess this interface (see the MDO Intersound description on the last page of this manual).

2. IF YOU POSSESS DOS4.0 OR HIGHER.

You need to make a system disk;

METHOD 1:

1. Before using the program, insert disk 1 in drive A (or B) after having started up the computer. At the DOS prompt A:\> (or B:\>) type INSTALL A: (or INSTALL B:). Confirm it by pressing the Enter or Return key.
2. When the operation is completed, re-boot your PC with the system disk you have just made. Leave it in the drive and re-boot by simultaneously pressing Ctrl-Alt-Del, or by momentarily switching off and then on the computer.
3. Remove the system disk from the drive. The game is now ready to be used according to the startup procedure already described.

METHOD 2:

1. Before using the program, insert a blank disk in drive A (or B) after having started up the computer. Format the disk, either from your hard disk (C:\>) or from your A or B drive by typing format A:/S (or FORMAT B:/S). Confirm it by pressing the Return or Enter key then follow the instructions on the screen.
 2. When the operation is completed, re-boot your PC using this new system disk. Leave it in the drive and re-boot by simultaneously pressing Ctrl-Alt-Del or by momentarily switching off and then on the computer.
 3. Remove the system disk from the drive. The game is now ready to be used according to the start up procedure already described.
- * For all further use on disk or hard disk you must first boot your PC using the new system disk you have made.

3. INSTALLATION ON IBM-PC COMPATIBLES HARD DISKS.

Create a specific directory (for example GAME) so that you can copy all the files on your disks into it.

1. At the DOS prompt C:\> type MD GAME and press Enter or Return.
2. Type CD GAME and Enter or Return. You are now in the directory called GAME, ie, C:\GAME>.
3. Copy the contents of the disk into the directory by placing the first disk into drive A (or B) and by typing COPY A:.* (or B:.*.) and pressing the Return or Enter key.
4. Start the game by typing GO.

From now on the game can be started by repeating steps 2 and 4.

THE MDO INTERSOUND INTERFACE.

With MDO INTERSOUND, the sound interface for non portable PC compatibles, the quality of sound obtained is comparable with the best computers. This can be obtained from Coktel Vision.

S.A.V. COKTEL VISION, PARC TERTIAIRE DE MEUDON, IMMEUBLE "LE GALILEE", 5/7 RUE JEANNE BRACONNIER, 92366 MEUDON LA FORET CEDEX FRANCE. Tel. 46 30 13 89
