POWER-UP ITEMS

In order to collect special power-up items, you must jump through the rings located at various points throughout the game.

Magic Rope:

Jump through the green ring to get this item. Help Pac-Man climb up to ledges that are out of reach. Avoid enemies and traps. Stand or jump under a ledge, then press and hold the "Y" button to attach the rope to the ledge above you. If you let go of the "Y" button, the rope disappears. When the rope is attached to a ledge above you, you can lengthen the rope by pressing "Down" on the controller. Press "Up" to shorten the rope.

Get in the swing of things by attaching your rope to a ledge, using the left and right controller buttons. You can pull an object by moving toward it, pressing the "Y" button, and then pressing the controller away from it.

Fireballs:

Jump through the yellow ring to get this item. The fireball is a weapon that can easily destroy almost any creature that gets in your way. Rapidly press the "Y" button for a stream of small fireballs. For larger fireballs, hold down the "Y" button for a second, then release. When all else fails, try shooting at other objects and obstacles.

Sledgehammer:

Jump through the red ring to get this item. The hammer can be used to clobber most enemies and to break open certain doors. The hammer's main use is for finding hidden destructible floors.

Water Bubble:

Jump through the blue ring to get this item. Swim underwater and blow bubbles to destroy fish by pressing the "Y" button. Some objects can be lifted underwater by rapidly blowing bubbles at them.

Power Pellets:

Instantly turns enemy ghosts blue, so you can munch them for a limited time. The ghosts start flashing just before the power pellet wears off.

Fruits:

Eat quickly for big bonus points. Restores Pac-Man's life.

Extra Life:

Collect a miniature Pac-Man and you'll receive an extra life.

THE FIVE STAGES OF PAC-MAN'S ADVENTURE

The Mountains

You'll begin your adventure among high mountain peaks and steep cliffs. But those hazards are the least of your troubles. As you descend to the valley, watch out for numerous creatures that inhabit the slopes. Can you trust a living snowman? Or how about a purple shooter plant, a jumping bean, or a flying egg layer? Good luck, Pac. You'll need it.

The Forest

Welcome to the forest. You'll want to have all your weapons handy for this one. Watch out for Pac-Man eating plants, spiked fruit, spitting pods, raining spike balls, and an attack bush. Why there's enough stuff out there to make you turn green.

Forgotten Palace

Your next adventure takes place in the Forgotten Palace. This place may look quiet, but beware...the walls come alive when there's a visitor around to entertain. Keep your eyes peeled for the Furrrie brothers, Big and Small. Watch your step, and your back to avoid ground spikes and slashing knives from the walls. Delight to the sights and sounds of the Rolling Stones. Survive this place and you'll break the spell.

The Village

Sure it was where you were born. But time has changed this place...for the worse. The place is not very hospitable, with inhabitants that are...well, downright nasty. Watch out for the devious rats and the wily old werewolf. Then there are the pigeons...but you already know why you have to avoid these devious bombers.

The Castle

It's your only way back home. The Castle houses the horrific Gum Monster, guardian of the door in time. Defeating the Monster is anything but a sure thing. You'll have to get by the Pac-Bat. Then there's the Buzz Saw, so sharp you'll just have to outwit it. And if the Metal Muncher and Slime don't slow you down, there are the Gum Droppings. Succeed in The Castle and you're home free.
