GAMBLING

Lady luck riding on your shoulders? Try betting on a fight. Here's how it works...

Select who you want to bet on, either you or your opponent. If you bet on your opponent, he will have to win in order for you to collect. Now, select how much you want to wager. (Just remember, you can't bet what you don't have!). Finally, press A and exit.

If you win, you get the amount you bet times the "Stake" (If the stake is x 2, and you bet $10,000, you get $20,000).

Depending on the outcome and who you bet on, you either collect green, or get nothing. But don't worry, everyone comes out a winner - you still get money just for fighting!

STATUS WINDOW

After each fight, you get a chance to improve your stamina - increase your lifeline; power - the amount of damage you'll be able to do; and defense - duckin' and dodgin' the blows.

Move the cursor to the appropriate trait, and press A to increase it by one. Press B if you make a mistake. Bonus points do not carry over, so you better use'em all.
